Security on Our Site

We use Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) technology to keep your personal information as secure as possible.

Privacy

The Jewish Federation of Greater New Haven values and respects all individuals and organizations who visit our web sites to obtain information or donate time, money, or resources. We do not use or disclose information about your visits to our Web site or information that you may give us, such as your name, address, e-mail address or telephone number, or credit card information to any outside organizations, companies, or individuals except for the purpose of completing actions on our site that you initiate, and for maintaining the Web site.

Information About All Visitors

Our site tracks certain usage information such as the number and frequency of visitors. We only use such data in the aggregate. This collective data helps us determine how our visitors use the site, so we can make improvements to ensure that it is functional, appealing, and useful.

In order to accurately track the number of unique visitors to our site, we use a technology called "cookies". These cookies do not collect personally identifiable information and we do not combine information collected through cookies with other personally identifiable information. We cannot gather your email address unless you give it to us.

Information About You

We may specifically ask for information about you, such as name, address, and phone number, when you make donations, select a volunteer opportunity, or request information. This information will be used solely for the purposes of completing your donation, locating the volunteer opportunity you are seeking, and contacting you as necessary.

If at any time you do not want to receive e-mail, mailings, or phone calls from us, please let us know by contacting us via phone, mail, or e-mail, and asking us to remove you from our list. If you have any other concerns about our privacy policy, please e-mail, write, or call us.

Thank you.
